Where to find the traceability number or PO?

Depending on the type of shoe, you will find the PO number information on one of the parts of the shoe, in most cases, it will be on the inside of the shoe, that is, on the lining. These can start with PO or ON.

For articles like boots, ankle boots, moccasins and ballerinas, we can find the number stamped on the lining (sides).

Examples:

For articles like sneakers, we can find the number stamped under the tongue.

Examples:

For articles like sandals and spadrils, we can find the stamped number on the inside of the straps or on the sole in case the strip is very thin and does not allow it.
